

On this day in 1849, gold seekers arrived in San Francisco, California. What type of qualities or characteristics do you believe these early folks needed to have as they set off for unknown adventures? Explain your thinking.