

Each year the Super Bowl takes place on the 2nd Sunday of February. This football game features the season's best two teams. There are always special events and musical performances around the event. If you were asked to plan this year's Super Bowl, what would the event look like and why?